September 23–26, 2024

Course Length:

This course is 4 days, 11 a.m.–5 p.m. ET daily.

Location:

This course will be delivered as a facilitated, distance learning training event using Adobe Connect sessions.

Course Description:

This Emergency Management Institute (EMI) course provides state, local, tribal, and territorial staffs with an overview of FEMA's Public Assistance (PA) Program, process, and policies. Course topics include introduction to program laws, regulations, policies, the PA process, grants management, eligibility, hazard mitigation in the PA Program, compliance with other Federal laws and regulations, and project formulation.

Prerequisites:

None

Target Audience:

The target audience for this course includes state, local, tribal, and territorial government personnel responsible for administering Public Assistance grants.

To Apply:

To apply for this course, go to the National Emergency Training Center Online Admissions Application.

Registration Supervisor Approval:

The Application Endorsement Screen requires the input of a supervisory email address. Once submitted, the application will be forwarded to that individual for approval. Once approved, the application will then route to the NETC Admissions Office.

How do I obtain my FEMA SID number?

To register, go to the Student Identification System. Click on the "Register for a FEMA SID" button on screen. Follow the instructions and provide the necessary information to create your account. You will receive an email with your SID number. You should save this number in a secure location.

Request for Accommodation:

If you require a reasonable accommodation (sign language interpreters, Braille, CART, etc.), please make your request NLT 30 days prior to the course offering. When making any requests, please provide details on the accommodation; however, DO NOT include medical or other personal information that is protected under the Privacy Act of 1974 or the Health Information Privacy Protection Act (45 CFR Part 160 Subparts A and E of Part 164). Last-minute requests will be accepted; however, they may not be possible to fulfill.
