FEMA

Course: E431 Understanding the Emergency Management Assistance Compact (EMAC)

Dates:

October 22–25, 2012

April 22–25, 2013

Travel Dates:

Travel days are Sunday and Friday.

Course Length:

This course is 4 full days.

Course Description:

This course enables emergency management personnel and response and recovery personnel from all political jurisdictions to more effectively understand, activate, implement, and utilize the EMAC system.

Course Goal:

The goal of this course is to introduce emergency management personnel and response and recovery personnel from all political jurisdictions to the EMAC process and assist them in gaining familiarity and competency with the EMAC system so when an event occurs that requires activation of the EMAC system, they know how to proceed; and what documentation and sources of information to use for guidance in order to maximize use of all available resources.

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Describe the legal stipulations in the EMAC Articles of Agreement.
- Describe the EMAC governance structure and Member State roles and responsibilities.

- Explain the process for requesting and offering assistance through the EMAC system.
- Apply the recommended actions during each phase of the EMAC process.
- Identify the EMAC levels of operations and span of control.
- Apply the process and procedures for reimbursing resource providers.

Continuing Education Units (CEU's):

The Emergency Management Institute (EMI) awards 2.4 CEUs for completion of this course.

Target Audience:

Notice to Applicants for FY 2013 courses:

Beginning on April 15, 2012, individuals applying for EMI classes will be required to register using the Training Administration Systems (CTAS) and obtain a Student Identification (SID) number. This number will be used in place of the Social Security Number (SSN) on your application form. The SSN number is no longer required.

How do I obtain my FEMA SID number?

Step 1: To register, go to <https://cdp.dhs.gov/elms>

Step 2: Click on the “Created Account” button on the left side of the screen.

Step 3: Follow the instructions and provide the necessary information to create your account.

What do I do with this new SID number I have been assigned?

The SID number is used in place of the SSN on your General Admissions Application (FEMA Form 119-25-1). When you enter and use the system you will be able to print off and retain a student identification card.
