UPDATE

Emergency Management Leaders Academy

Course: E0451 Leadership Attributes

Dates: April 1 – 4, 2013

Travel Dates:

Travel days are March 31 and April 5, 2013.

Course Length:

This course is 4 days in length. This is the first course in a four-course Academy series.

Course Description:

This is an interactive developmental course that will focus on leadership core competencies required to effectively operate in the emergency management (EM) environment.

Course Goals and Objectives:

Introduce qualities of effective EM leaders, relevant management styles, strategic thinking, and decision-making in EM leadership; understand and implement EM program evaluation, situational awareness, planning, mission and vision statements; effectively address Human Resource (HR) issues; develop awareness of key attributes of communication and collaboration for an effective EM leader; and discuss inter- and intra-agency communication, public advocacy, change management, and personal strengths.

The last day of the course will include a case study scenario where participants will work in groups. The intent of the exercise is for the groups to work through a case study scenario using the concepts and information covered during the course.

Continuing Education Units (CEU's):

The Emergency Management Institute (EMI) awards 2.8 CEUs for completion of this course.

Target Audience:

Full-time managers in Federal, State, tribal or local EM with experience in disaster and emergency events or holding major program and policy positions. The State and local participants must be Emergency Manager, EM Directors, EM Section Chiefs, or related positions of authority. The audience may also include Federal managers such as Program Managers, Branch Chiefs, Section Chiefs, and Division Directors and above.

Location:

Emergency Management Institute
National Emergency Training Center (NETC)
Emmitsburg, Maryland

The State and local participants must be Emergency Managers, EM Directors, EM Section Chiefs, or related positions of authority. The audience may also include Federal managers such as Program Managers, Branch Chiefs, Section Chiefs, Division Directors, and above.

Notice to Applicants for FY 2013 Courses:

Individuals applying for EMI classes will be required to register using the Training Administration System (CTAS) and obtain a Student Identification (SID) number. This number will be used in place of the Social Security Number (SSN) on your application form. The SSN is no longer required.

How do I obtain my FEMA SID number?

Step 1: To register, go to

<https://cdp.dhs.gov/femasid>

Step 2: Click on the “Need a FEMA SID” box on the right side of the screen.

Step 3: Follow the instructions and provide the necessary information to create your account.

Step 4: You will receive an email with your SID number. You should save this number in a secure location.

What do I do with this new SID number I have been assigned?

The SID number should be used in place of the SSN on your General Admissions Application (FEMA Form 119-25-1) for any courses that begin on or after October 1, 2012.
