

E0210 Recovery from Disaster: The Local Community Roles

Course Date:

December 12–15, 2022

Course Length:

This course is 4 full days (8:30 a.m.–5 p.m. daily)

Location:

Emergency Management Institute (EMI)
National Emergency Training Center (NETC)
Emmitsburg, Maryland

Course Description:

This course addresses concepts in disaster recovery and the latest guidance on recovery planning. Participants will either assess their own recovery plan or a sample against this national planning guidance. Following that, participants will discuss how a disaster recovery effort can be organized, managed, and led along with the types of challenges faced by recovery managers. Scenario activities throughout the course give participants the opportunity to target information strategies, address local capabilities and challenges, and analyze experiences from various communities that have experienced disaster.

Course Objectives:

1. Increase participants' knowledge of local government responsibilities and challenges associated with disaster recovery.
2. Prepare participants to analyze the need for, develop, revise, and/or implement a pre-disaster recovery plan.
3. Provide a forum for discussion of "lessons learned" in disaster recovery at the local level.

Recommended Prerequisites:

IS-2900.A, National Disaster Recovery Framework (NDRF) Overview (<https://training.fema.gov/is/courseoverview.aspx?code=IS-2900.a&lang=en>) and IS-100.C, Introduction to the Incident Command System, ICS-100 (<https://training.fema.gov/is/courseoverview.aspx?code=IS-100.c&lang=en>).

Continuing Education Units (CEUs):

EMI awards 2.4 CEUs for successful completion of this course.

Target Audience:

The audience includes a wide variety of those involved in planning for and implementing community disaster recovery. Among those might be: Local and tribal elected officials; city/county managers and planners; members of Regional Planning Commissions and Economic Development Districts; Emergency Managers and staff; Public Works Directors; Health Care Administrator or Planner; Public Information Officer; Housing Director or Planner/Staff; Voluntary Agency Coordinators; Faith-Based Leaders; Business Organization Representatives; and State Recovery Staff and Partners.

The EMI stipend program is available for State, local, tribal, and territorial participants. Airport shuttles are available and on-campus housing is required.
