Course Description:

This course is designed to prepare Federal, state, tribal, territorial, and locally-sponsored students to teach the All-Hazards Planning Section Chief course through the use of lecture, interactive discussion, guided exercises and activities, and practice student teaching.

Course Goal:

The goal of this course is to prepare the student to function effectively as an Instructor for the National Incident Management System (NIMS) Incident Command System (ICS) All-Hazards Position-Specific Planning Section Chief course.

Prerequisites:

At a minimum, applicants for admission into All-Hazards Position-Specific train-the-trainer classes should have completed IS-ICS 100, 200, 700, and 800, and ICS 300 & 400. In addition, applicants must have either completed the course they desire to teach or have significant demonstrated experience in the position prior to acceptance in the class. This experience should be verified by the respective State Training Officer or the appropriate Federal representative.

Continuing Education Units (CEU's):

EMI awards 2.8 CEUs for completion of this course.

Target Audience:

The target audience for this course are personnel who have served as Planning Section Chiefs on Level 3 or higher Incident Management Teams (IMTs) and are qualified and interested in teaching the course to diverse groups of students looking to acquire the knowledge, skills, and abilities associated with the position.

To Apply:

Complete a FEMA Form 119-25-1, General Admissions Application, with student signature and signature of supervisor or sponsoring agency official. Submit the application through the State Emergency Management Training Office. FEMA Regional employees should submit their application to their Regional Training Manager (RTM). Tribal representatives can submit their application directly to NETC Admission Office. Tribal government representatives or Federal government employees DO NOT need to submit applications through the State Emergency Management Training office or FEMA Regional Office.
