

Master Public Information Officer Program (MPIOP) Overview/FY18 Application Process

Purpose:

To provide an overview of the Master Public Information Officer Program (MPIOP) and the FY18 application process.

Program Description:

The Master Public Information Officer Program is a three-course series that prepares public information officers for an expanded role in delivering public information and warning using a strategic whole community approach.

The program reinforces the qualities needed to lead whole community public information/external affairs programs, provides relevant management theories and concepts, and uses case studies to enhance public information/external affairs skill sets. MPIOP participants work within a collaborative environment on projects and establish a network of peers.

MPIOP participants will contribute to the body of knowledge for emergency management related public information. This includes evaluation of leadership, group dynamics and functional best practices of joint information centers (JICs) by monitoring student activity during advanced public information officer course offerings.

E0389 Course Objectives:

- Demonstrate how to use networking to influence programs, organizations and environments by conducting a networking activity;
- Describe how to explain to stakeholders the importance of engaging community executives in communications planning by applying the whole community concept to an analytical activity;

- Assess science-based research methods available to grow the Public Information body of knowledge by drafting initial ideas for the individual capstone project;
- Examine leadership lessons by participating in a group Executive Reading session;
- Apply the basic concepts of Disaster Behavioral Health by analyzing a case study;
- Promote public information training and exercises in the organization and community by developing a community or agency specific training and exercises plan;
- Contrast strategic and executive concepts for a public information case study; and
- Implement the next steps of the Master Public Information Officer program.

E0393 Course Objectives

- Discuss organizational analysis in preparation for analysis of a joint information center functional exercise;
- Discuss techniques for analyzing interpersonal relationships within a Joint Information Center during a functional exercise;
- Design a process for analyzing a joint information center functional exercise;
- Analyze a functional exercise for personnel management trends, best practices leadership practice;
- Evaluate interpersonal relationships as they pertain to joint information center practice during a functional exercise;
- Design a report outlining results of the functional exercise analysis that will contribute to the public information body of knowledge.

E0394 Course Objectives

- Develop body of knowledge report through consolidated review of multiple joint information center functional exercise analysis reports;
- Propose how strategic PIO leaders coordinate the actions of stakeholders and emergency management agencies to achieve a common purpose; and
- Design, develop and implement a research project to contribute to the public information body of knowledge.
