

E0431 – Understanding the Emergency Management Assistance Compact (EMAC)

Course Dates:

July 26–28, 2022

Travel Dates:

Monday, July 25 and Friday, July 29, 2022

Course Length:

3 days

Location:

Emergency Management Institute (EMI),
National Emergency Training Center (NETC),
16825 South Seton Avenue
Emmitsburg, Maryland 21727

Course Description:

This course enables emergency management, response, and recovery personnel from all political jurisdictions to understand, activate, implement, and use the EMAC system more effectively.

Goal:

The goal is to introduce emergency management, response, and recovery personnel to EMAC and the EMAC process so they can knowledgeably use the Nation's interstate mutual aid system.

Prerequisites:

None

Target Audience:

- Personnel from any jurisdiction or organization who can be legally deployed via EMAC, or
- Personnel from organizations who may request or provide assistance via EMAC, or
- Individuals desiring a more comprehensive working knowledge of EMAC.

To Apply:

Applicants must use the NETC online admissions application system (https://training.fema.gov/netc_online_admissions/) to apply.

Before applying through the online admissions system, a valid FEMA Student Identification number (SID) is required. Apply for a FEMA SID or find a forgotten FEMA SID at <https://cdp.dhs.gov/femasid>.

Application Selection Criteria:

To be evaluated for admission into this course, please refer to the Target Audience criteria and indicate on your application how you meet the requirements based upon your position and experience, making sure to reference EMAC.

Travel and Housing Information:

Upon acceptance into the course, NETC Admissions will email an Acceptance Letter and Welcome Package outlining travel information, NETC shuttle services, lodging, and other logistics. A PDF copy of the NETC Welcome Package can be found at https://www.usfa.fema.gov/downloads/pdf/netc_welcome_package.pdf.

Lodging is provided at no cost for course participants on the NETC campus. However, participants staying overnight on campus are required to purchase a meal ticket for the duration of the training activity. Participants should notify the NETC Transportation Office at least 2 weeks prior to the course date to reserve a shuttle seat. Details for the above are in the Welcome Package.

Note: State/Local/Tribal/Territorial (SLTT) attendees can submit student stipend requests after the course concludes.
