General Staff Functions

Visual Description: Unit Objective

Key Points

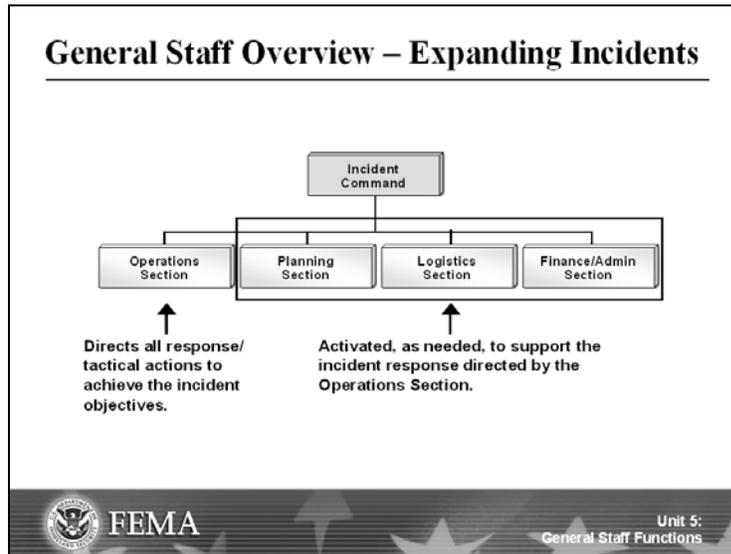

By the end of this unit, you should be able to describe the roles and functions of the General Staff including:

- Operations Section
- Planning Section
- Logistics Section
- Finance/Administration Section

Most school incidents usually are small, managed in a short period of time, and require few outside response resources. However, a school may become involved in a larger incident affecting the whole community and may be isolated. In such cases, a larger ICS organization may be required to manage the incident.

Visual 5.3

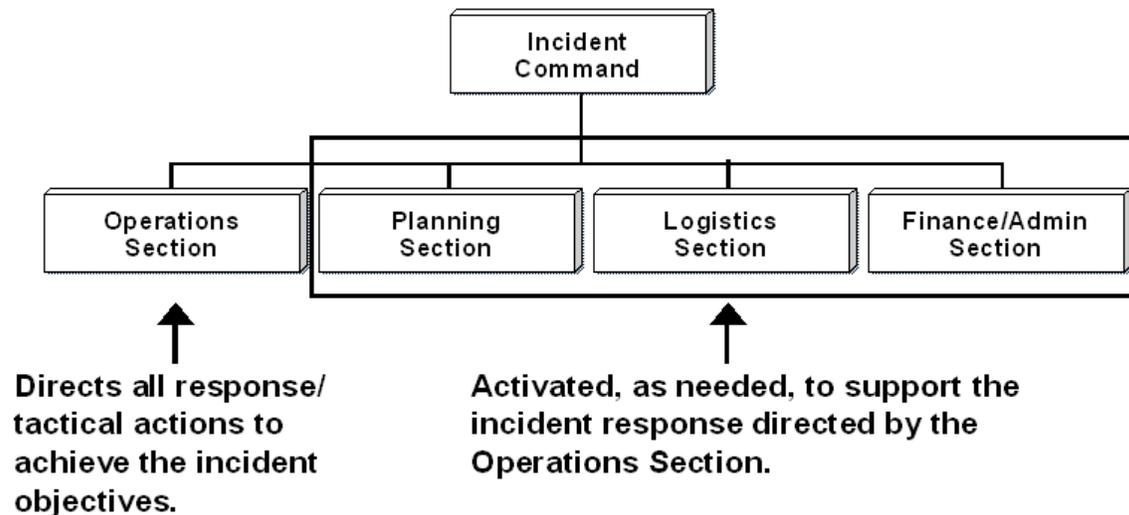

Visual Description: General Staff Overview – Expanding Incidents

Key Points

The General Staff overall responsibilities are summarized in the graphic.

In an expanding incident, the Incident Command first establishes the Operations Section. The remaining Sections are established as needed to support the operation.

Visual 5.4

Visual Description: Expanding Incidents

Key Points

The definitions of ICS organizational components are shown below.

- Sections: The organizational levels with responsibility for a major functional area of the incident (e.g., Operations, Planning, Logistics, Finance/Administration). The person in charge of each Section is designated as a Chief.
- Divisions: Used to divide an incident geographically. The person in charge of each Division is designated as a Supervisor.
- Groups: Used to describe functional areas of operations. The person in charge of each Group is designated as a Supervisor.
- Branches: Used when the number of Divisions or Groups exceeds the span of control. Can be either geographical or functional. The person in charge of each Branch is designated as a Director.
- Task Forces: A combination of mixed resources with common communications operating under the direct supervision of a Task Force Leader.
- Strike Teams: A set number of resources of the same kind and type with common communications operating under the direct supervision of a Strike Team Leader.
- Single Resources: May be individuals, a piece of equipment and its personnel complement, or a crew or team of individuals with an identified supervisor that can be used at an incident.

ICS Section Chiefs and Deputies

- Section Chiefs may have one or more deputies.
- Deputies should be as proficient and qualified as the Section Chief.

Visual Description: ICS Section Chiefs and Deputies

Key Points

Remember, the person in charge of each Section is designated as a Chief. Section Chiefs have the ability to expand their Sections to meet the needs of the situation.

Each of the Section Chiefs may have a Deputy, or more than one, if necessary. The Deputy:

- May assume responsibility for a specific portion of the primary position, work as relief, or be assigned other tasks.
- Should always be as proficient as the person for whom he or she works.

Visual 5.7

Increasing Interagency Coordination

- When an incident involves multiple agencies, assigning Deputies from other organizations can increase interagency coordination.

Visual Description: Increasing Interagency Coordination

Key Points

When an incident involves multiple agencies, assigning Deputies from other organizations can increase interagency coordination.

For example, in the case of a bomb threat at a school, Incident Command may be transferred to a first response organization while a school official may serve as a Deputy. When first responders and school personnel are integrated into the same ICS organizational structure, valuable information can be shared and crisis decisionmaking improved.

Visual Description: Audio: Operations Section Chief

Key Points

Typically, the Operations Section Chief is the person with the greatest technical and tactical expertise in dealing with the problem at hand. The Operations Section Chief:

- Develops and implements strategy and tactics to carry out the incident objectives.
- Organizes, assigns, and supervises the response resources.

The following audio clip is of an Operations Section Chief explaining her role.

Audio Transcript:

I take direction from the Incident Commander. I'm responsible for developing and implementing strategy and tactics to accomplish the incident objectives. This means that I organize, assign, and supervise all the tactical or response resources assigned to the incident. I would also manage the Staging Area, if one were established.

Visual 5.9

Visual 5.10

Visual Description: Video: Operations Section: Expanding and Contracting

Key Points

The following video explains how the Section Chief manages the Operations Section. The video summarizes the expansion and contraction of an Operations Section.

Video Transcript:

The Operations Section Chief at an incident may work initially with only a few single resources or staff members.

The Operations Section usually develops from the bottom up. The organization will expand to include needed levels of supervision as more and more resources are deployed.

Single resources may be grouped into Strike Teams or Task Forces who report to a Leader. Remember, Strike Teams are comprised of similar resources while Task Forces combine different types of resources.

Groups may be added to supervise the growing number of resources, Teams, or Task Forces. Or, geographic Divisions along with Groups may be used. The Operations Section Chief may add Branches to supervise the Groups and Divisions and further reduce his or her span of control.

At some point, the Operations Section and the rest of the ICS organization will contract. The decision to contract will be based on the achievement of incident objectives.

Demobilization planning begins upon activation of the first personnel and continues until the ICS organization ceases operation.

Visual 5.11

Operations: Single Resources

On a smaller incident, the Operations Section may be comprised of an Operations Section Chief and single resources.

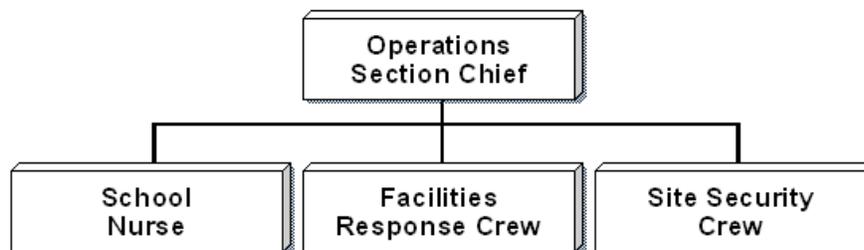

Unit 5:
General Staff Functions

Visual Description: Operations: Single Resources

Key Points

Single Resources are individuals, a piece of equipment and its personnel complement, or a crew or team of individuals with an identified supervisor. On a smaller incident, the Operations Section may be comprised of an Operations Section Chief and single resources.

Visual 5.12

Operations: Teams

Most school-based incidents have “Teams and Team Leaders.” Using standard ICS terminology, the two types of team configurations are:

- Task Forces, which are a combination of mixed resources with common communications supervised by a Leader.
- Strike Teams, which include all similar resources with common communications supervised by a Leader.

Unit 5:
General Staff Functions

Visual Description: Operations: Teams

Key Points

Single resources may be organized into teams. Using standard ICS terminology, the two types of team configurations are:

- Task Forces, which are a combination of mixed resources with common communications operating under the direct supervision of a Leader.
- Strike Teams, which include all similar resources with common communications operating under the direct supervision of a Leader.

Most school-based incidents typically use the terms, “Teams and Team Leaders.”

The terms Task Forces and Strike Teams comply with ICS common terminology and would be more easily understood by community-based responders.

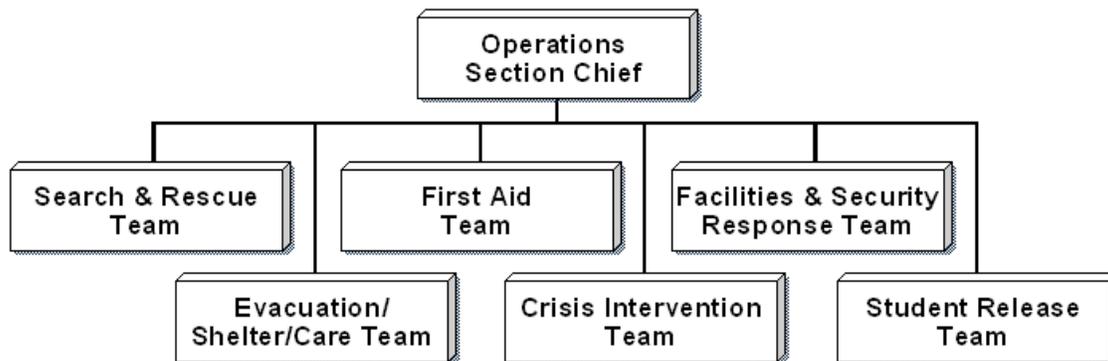

Visual 5.13

Visual Description: Sample “Strike” Teams

Key Points

The Operations Section organization chart shows possible team assignments in a school incident. Each team would have a Team Leader reporting to the Operations Section Chief.

Note: These are examples of possible teams. Teams should be established based on the type of incident and unique requirements of the school.

Review the team responsibilities listed on the next page.

What other types of teams do you use during a school response?

Topic

Potential Operations Section “Strike” Teams

Strike Team	Potential Responsibilities
Search & Rescue Team	Search & Rescue Teams search the entire school facility, entering only after they have checked the outside for signs of structural damage and determined that it is safe to enter. Search & Rescue Teams are responsible for ensuring that all students and staff evacuate the building (or, if it is unsafe to move the persons, that their locations are documented so that professional responders can locate them easily and extricate them). Search & Rescue Teams are also responsible for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Identifying and marking unsafe areas. ▪ Conducting initial damage assessment. ▪ Obtaining injury and missing student reports from teachers.
First Aid Team	First Aid Teams provide triage, treatment, and psychological first aid services. First Aid Teams are responsible for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Setting up first aid area for students. ▪ Assessing and treating injuries. ▪ Completing master injury report. Note: The Logistics Section Medical Unit provides care to responders. The Operations Section First Aid Team is dedicated to students or other disaster victims.
Evacuation/ Shelter/Care Team	Evacuation, shelter, and student care in an emergency are among the most important tasks faced by schools. These tasks include student accounting, protection from weather, providing for sanitation needs, and providing for food and water. The Evacuation/Shelter/Care Team is responsible for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Accounting for the whereabouts of all students, staff, and volunteers. ▪ Setting up a secure assembly area. ▪ Managing sheltering and sanitation operations. ▪ Managing student feeding and hydration. ▪ Coordinating with the Student Release Team. ▪ Coordinating with the Logistics Section to secure the needed space and supplies.

Crisis Intervention Team	The Crisis Intervention Team is responsible for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Assessing need for onsite mental health support. ▪ Determining need for outside agency assistance. ▪ Providing onsite intervention/counseling. ▪ Monitoring well-being of school emergency team, staff, and students. ▪ Reporting all findings to the Operations Section Chief.
Student Release Team	Reunification refers to getting students reunited with their parents or guardians in an efficient and orderly manner. Reunification can be an enormous challenge and takes a lot of planning. The Student Release Team is responsible for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Setting up a secure reunion area. ▪ Checking student emergency cards for authorized releases. ▪ Completing release logs. ▪ Coordinating with the Public Information Officer on external messages.

Visual 5.15

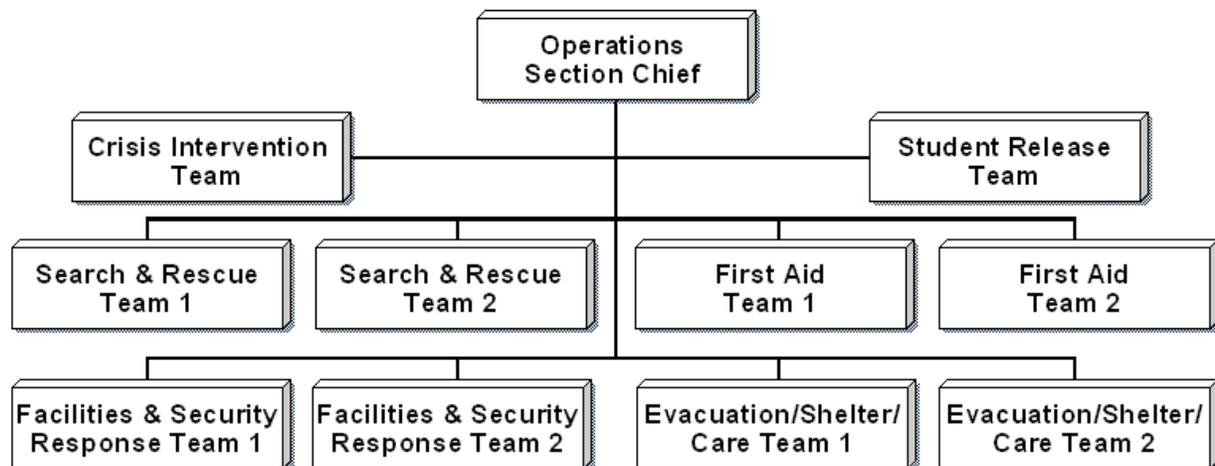

Visual Description: Operations: Too Many Teams!

Key Points

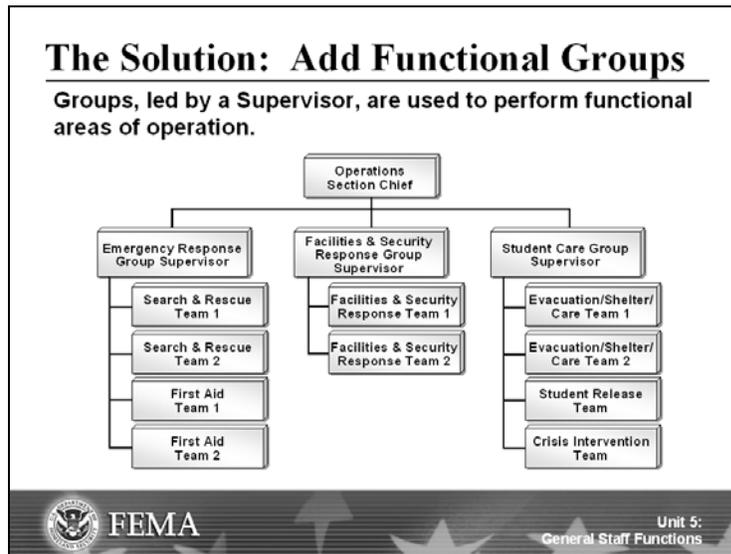

To maintain span of control, each team should be comprised of a Team Leader and no more than 5 to 7 team members.

As teams are added, what happens to the Operations Section Chief's span of control?

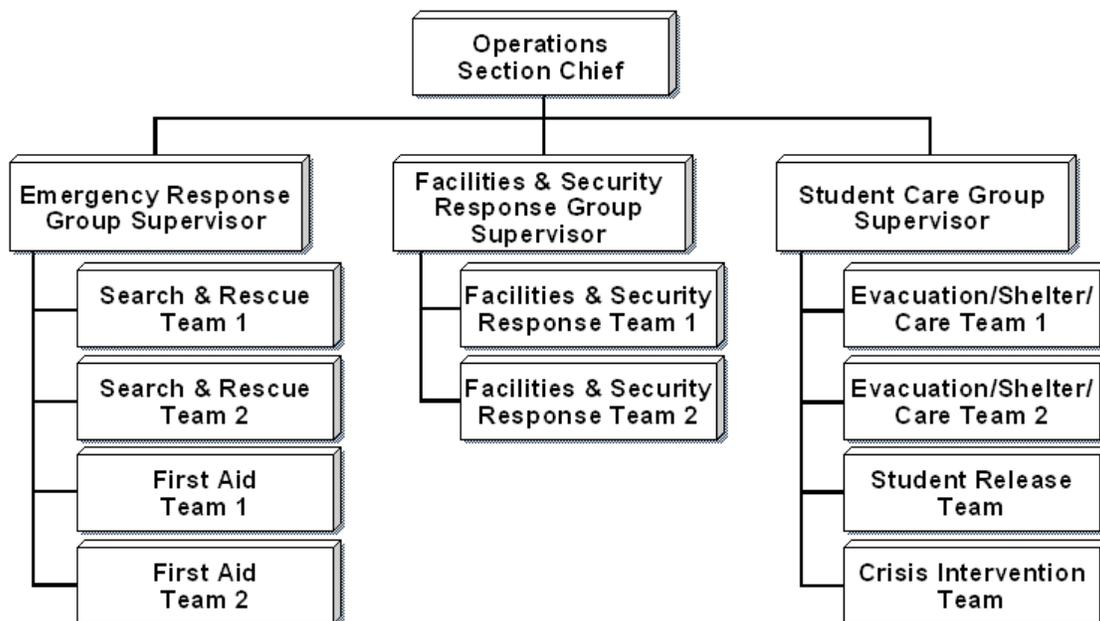

Visual 5.16

Visual Description: The Solution: Add Functional Groups

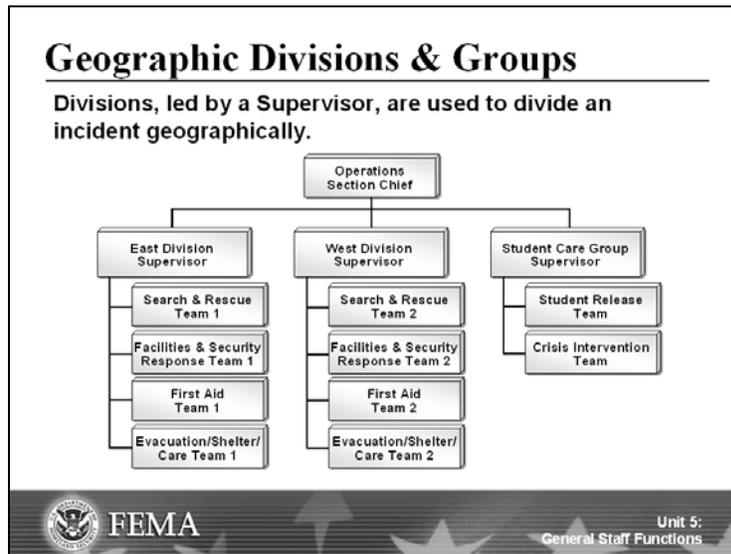

Key Points

On a large, complex incident the Operations Section may become very large. Using the ICS principle of modular organization, the Operations Section may add elements to manage span of control. Groups are used to perform functional areas of operation. The organizational chart below illustrates how Groups can be used to maintain span of control within the Operations Section.

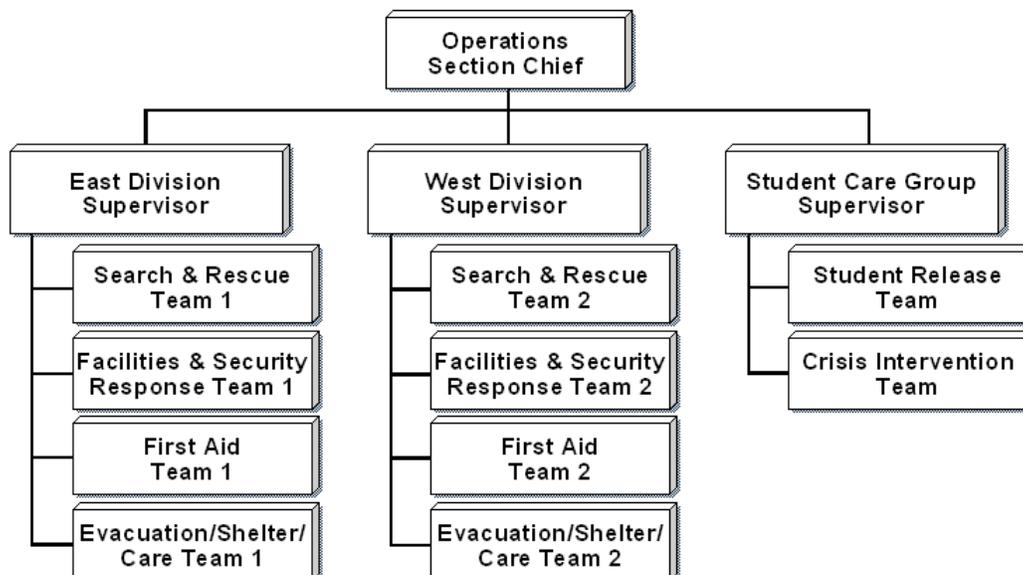

Visual 5.17

Visual Description: Geographic Divisions & Groups

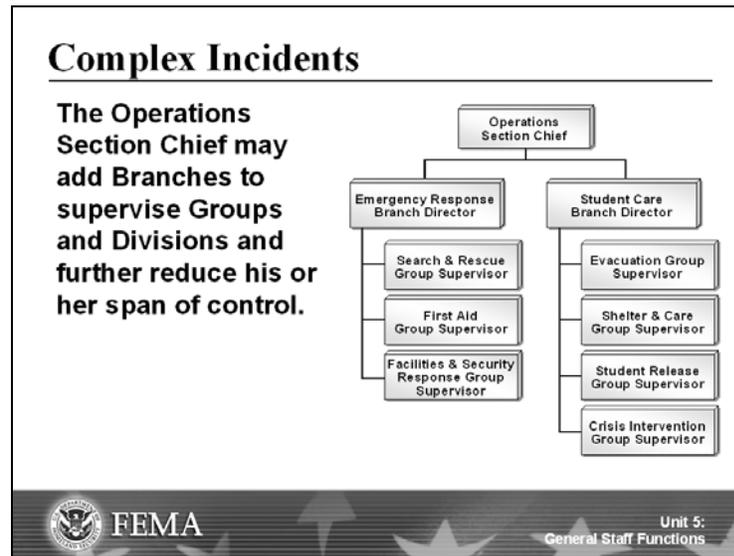

Key Points

Divisions can be used to add a level of supervision. Divisions are used to divide an incident geographically. The organizational chart below illustrates how Groups and Divisions can be used together to maintain span of control within the Operations Section. The use of Divisions would be effective if the incident covered a large or isolated area of the school campus.

Visual 5.18

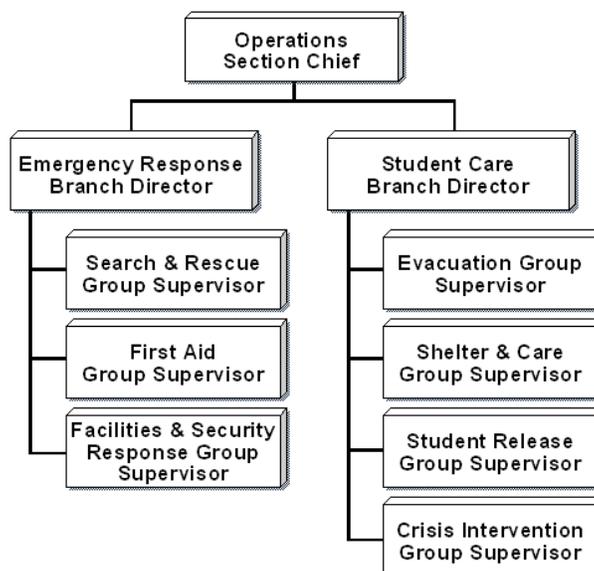

Visual Description: Complex Incidents

Key Points

The Operations Section Chief may add Branches to supervise Groups and Divisions and further reduce his or her span of control. The person in charge of each Branch is designated as a Director.

Review the chart. What are the advantages of reducing the Operations Section Chief's span of control?
