

NATIONAL EMERGENCY TRAINING CENTER

St. Joseph's College was purchased by the Federal Emergency Management Agency in 1979 to serve as a training facility. Prior to its official closing in 1973 the college served as a four-year liberal arts college for women. In 1981, the facility was entered into the Federal records as the National Emergency Training Center (NETC). The NETC houses the United States Fire Administration (which includes the National Fire Academy), the Emergency Management Institute and the Field Acquisitions Section. The following is a brief description of the buildings identified on the reverse side.
