Arizona State University - Bachelor of Science Public Service & Public Policy: Emergency Management & Homeland Security

The School of Public Affairs offers a concentration in emergency management and homeland security as part of the BS in public service and public policy. This concentration program provides students with the skills and knowledge to manage and assume positions of leadership within the field of emergency management and homeland security. Concepts of public policy and management are blended together with emergency management principles to enhance and foster critical thinking within the general field of study. More specifically, the program's focus provides the student with a comprehensive perspective which is critically important for today's and tomorrow's disaster managers.

This major is eligible for the Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) program at the following location: Downtown Phoenix campus.
