John Jay College, City University of New York – Advanced Certificate in Emergency Management Studies

The Advanced Certificate in Emergency Management Studies program offers advanced instruction related to theory, legal structure, federal doctrine, and practice of emergency management. The advanced certificate addresses the five phases of emergency management: prepare, respond, recover, mitigate, and prevent. It includes courses that deal with the history of emergency management and disaster, legal frameworks and intergovernmental aspects of emergency management, and the role of private and non-profit organizations in disaster response. The program incorporates preparation for, response to, and recovery from natural, as well as man-made disasters. Both public and private perspectives are recognized. Students must complete the introductory course, three courses in advanced emergency management topics and the 1-credit seminar course.

The Advanced Certificate in Emergency Management Studies is a 13 credit program consisting of four required courses. Students may select one of two elective courses to complete the program.

Required Core (10 credits):
PMT 711 Introduction to Emergency Management
PMT 725 Seminar in Emergency Management Response
PMT 763 Emergency Management: Preparedness
PMT 764 Managing Response to Large-Scale Incidents

Electives (students select 1 from the following):
PMT 760 Emergency Management: Mitigation and Recovery
PMT Business Continuity Planning

Requirements
- An undergraduate degree from an accredited institution
- Satisfactory letters of reference

Note: Currently enrolled John Jay College graduate students are eligible to take courses toward the Advanced Certificate in Emergency Management Studies
