Mission
The mission of Kansas Wesleyan University is to promote and integrate academic excellence, spiritual development, personal well-being, and social responsibility.

The mission of the emergency management major at Kansas Wesleyan University is to give students the theoretical knowledge, practical skills, and the sense of duty necessary to help save lives and property from the devastating impact of disasters.

Curriculum
The baccalaureate in emergency management is part of a broadly based educational program that balances liberal studies/general education, required and elective courses in emergency management and unrestrictive general electives.

The emergency management degree successfully integrates seven content areas in the curriculum. They include:

Emergency Management Leadership: Students will be able to understand and apply administrative, management; community risk; leadership skills; ethics; managing projects, people and change; inter/ intra agency coordinating, collaborating and networking/team building.

Organizational Acumen: Students will be able to consider legal issues and concerns; Stafford Act and Patriot Act (as they relate to emergency management); legal environment and disaster laws; complex systems and risk governance.

Problem-solver: Students will be able to utilize critical thinking skills; employe professional ethics and be continual learnings in the field of emergency management.

Broad Knowledge Base: Student will be able to utilize scientific knowledge to identify questions and draw evidence-based conclusions; geographic literacy related to geographic configurations of hazards, vulnerabilities, and risks; sociocultural literacy which will provide a lens to examine and understand human behaviors; and incorporate evolving technology and exercise informal influence across organizational boundaries.

Diversity: Students will design ideas that result in behaviors and practices that promote social justice and equity.

Emergency management is the study of how individuals, businesses, and government prepare for, mitigate, respond to, and recover from disasters. The mission of the emergency management major at Kansas Wesleyan University is to give students the theoretical knowledge, practical skills, and the sense of duty necessary to help save lives and property from the devastating impact of disasters. Students desiring a Bachelor of Arts degree in the field of emergency management may complete a major in Emergency Management or Emergency Management with a track in Homeland Security, Business Continuity, or Non-Governmental Organizations. A concurrent minor in political science is popular and recommended. Graduates with an Emergency Management Major find many exciting placement opportunities in the public and private safety field.

*CJ courses may be used as electives upon approval of the department.
