

Monroe College – Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice with a Minor in Emergency Management

Monroe College offers a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice with a Minor in Emergency Management. In the aftermath of the attacks on 9/11 and with the creation of the Department of Homeland Security, the field of Emergency Management has evolved into a full professional career. The field has received even more attention with a wave of ongoing natural disasters that continue to plague both the United States and heavily populated areas around the world. Emergency Management professionals play roles mitigating, preparing for, responding to and recovering from emergencies and disasters. The overriding goals of these activities deal with saving lives and protecting property and the environment.
