

St. Edward's University – Bachelor of Arts in Public Safety Management (PSM)

St. Edward's University is offering a Bachelor of Arts in Public Safety Management. The Bachelor of Arts in Public Safety Management equips public safety professionals with skills in working with people, managing change within an organization, creating innovation, and utilizing communication skills to address social and organizational problems. Public safety and human security are crucial perspectives of the program. The program will provide public safety professionals with a systematic understanding of public administration, including community relations, human resources administration, budgeting, global perspectives on terrorism, and terrorism and disaster preparedness.

The mission of the Public Safety Management Program is to develop effective leaders, promote career advancement, and encourage collaboration among public safety entities and between those entities and the public in order to enhance their ability to ensure public safety.
