

The Institute of World Politics – Executive Master of Arts in National Security Affairs

The Executive Master of Arts in National Security Affairs is designed for professionals with seven to ten years of relevant work experience. The curriculum provides a comprehensive study of the development and implementation of national security policy, to include its intellectual and ideological dimensions, e.g., the battle of ideas. This program also equips the student with powerful tools and knowledge to advance their careers and enhance the formulation of American national security policy.

(One year to complete with full-time student status; part-time study also permitted)

Required Course – 28 Credits

IWP 642 Economics for Foreign Policy Makers (2 credits)

IWP 634 Geography and Strategy (2 credits)

IWP 674 National Security Policy Directed Study (2 credits)

IWP 675 Political and Moral Philosophy (2 credits)

IWP 659 Enemy Threat Doctrine of Global Jihadism OR IWP 630 Chinese Grand Strategy: Foreign and Military Policy OR IWP 603

Russian Politics and Foreign Policy (4 credits) OR IWP 680 Modern China

IWP 679 Defense Strategy, Planning and Budgeting (4 credits)

IWP 627 International Relations, Statecraft and Integrated Strategy (4 credits)

IWP 637 Public Diplomacy and Strategic Influence OR IWP 641 Political Warfare: Past, Present and Future (4 credits)

IWP 616 U.S. National Security Strategy and Emerging Threats (4 credits)

The Institute of World Politics is accredited by Middle States Commission on Higher Education.

For more information contact:

Tim Stebbins
Director of Graduate Recruitment
1521 16th Street NW
Washington, DC 20036
Phone: (202) 462-2101 Ext. 305
Email: tstebbins@iwps.edu

Additional Information: <http://www.iwp.edu/programs/degree/executive-master-of-arts-in-national-security-affairs>

Update: 7/25/2018

“Please note: Some of the Web sites linked to in this document are not federal government Web sites, and may not necessarily operate under the same laws, regulations, and policies as federal Web sites.”