

University of Florida – Graduate Certificate in Emergency Services/Disaster Management

The Graduate Certificate in Emergency Services/Disaster Management is designed for individuals who are seeking to expand their knowledge in emergency planning, hazard mitigation and preparedness, disaster response and recovery, and homeland security. The goal is to create broad experience that includes the many elements of current cases in ES/DM and emphasizes both the critical thinking and leadership skills necessary to advance in the field. Applicants must have already attained at least a bachelor's degree prior to being admitted to the program.

The Graduate Certificate consists of the following classes that are selected with the FES Academic Advisor:

- Emergency Services - Disaster Response
- Hazard Mitigation and Preparedness
- FES Response Planning
- Homeland Security and Emergency Management

The University of Florida is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.
