

Waldorf University – Associate in Arts in Emergency Management

Waldorf University offers an Associate in Arts in Emergency Management degree. Waldorf's A.A. in Emergency Management degree provides foundational knowledge and initial exposure to the Emergency Management field. Learners explore a variety of areas within the discipline, including the four phases of emergency management, terrorism in emergency management, as well as interagency disaster management. This degree program is designed for students seeking entry-level exposure to the emergency management field, as well as for professionals in industries such as fire science, homeland security, and EMT administration who are seeking to bolster their emergency management background.

Option to Continue towards a Bachelor's Degree

For students who may wish to pursue a bachelor's degree in the future, the associate degree program is designed to prepare for entry into Waldorf's bachelor's degree programs with upper division standing. The coursework in this A.A. degree program is designed to coordinate with Waldorf's B.A. in Emergency Management or the B.A. in Homeland Security.
