Presents

“EM/HS Scholarship of Teaching and Learning Focus Group Update”

December 5, 2017

2:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. ET

Description:

FEMA’s Higher Education Program hosted a Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SoTL) Focus Group September 13-14, 2017. What is SoTL Research? The Scholarship of Teaching and Learning is an inquiry of student learning at the post-secondary level which can, in turn, advance the practice of teaching. The purpose of the focus group was to capture the trends, gaps, opportunities, and challenges in Emergency Management and Homeland Security’s (EM/HS) Scholarship of Teaching and Learning. In addition, to develop a list regarding these points and disseminate them via a report, webinar, conference presentation, and journal article.

Presenters:

- Shirley Feldman-Jensen, Ph.D., California State University, Long Beach
- Caroline Hackerott, Ph.D., Arkansas Tech University
- Alessandra Jerolleman, Ph.D., Jacksonville State University, University of New Orleans and Tulane University
- Claire Connolly Knox, Ph.D., University of Central Florida
- James Ramsay, Ph.D. University of New Hampshire
- Michael O’Connor, Ph.D., State University of New York at Canton
- Wendy Walsh, Higher Education Program Manager
